Ms. [REDACTED]

I have copied you on my request to DONFOIA because when I wrote the address in the appropriate section of this email it did not behave as I'm accustomed to.

I am responding to your instructions to my associate, Doug Talley, regarding our FOIA request to the Department of the Navy for documents pertaining to Stencel Aero Engineering Corporation ("Stencel"). As a reminder, Stencel was an acquisition of Universal Propulsion Company, Inc., which in turn later became an acquisition of Goodrich, so that Goodrich has acquired rights to Stencel's historic insurance assets. Goodrich is our client.

We are seeking any and all historic insurance documents pertaining to Stencel. We would like to arrange to view the documents in person before making a decision about copies. We are willing to pay copy fees for the documents we select or copy them ourselves, if possible, at your facility.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Regards,

Yes, I have checked the files and we do have some files for Stencel Aero Engineering Corporation. However, in accordance with instructions provided by our FOIA office, all requests for historical insurance records must now be forwarded to the DON FOIA office for processing. Attached please find a letter of authorization from United Technologies authorizing Risk International to receive access to the Department of Navy insurance records for Stencel Aero Engineering Corporation. United Technologies had purchased Goodrich Corporation in a stock acquisition in the summer of 2012-the remaining details of Goodrich's rights to the insurance information of Stencel are outlined in the attached authorization letter.

Please advise if you require any further information for Risk International to receive the requested access.
